The Department of Higher Education has been identified as the Nodal Department for EDUSAT project.

©. NAAC :

Under National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), the Department of Higher Education, Nagaland has seriously taken up the national policy for Assessment and Accreditation of Colleges, in order to promote and sustain Quality Education in the State. The Department is activity involved to create awareness in the Colleges for quality education. The includes conducting Principals workshpiops, Seminars for coordinators and visiting Colleges to motivate and guide for accreditation.

Fazl Ali College, Mokokchung became the first Govt. College to be NAAC assessed during 27th – 29th August 2009. The College was accredited with Grade ‘B’. Earlier some private Institutions namely, St. Joseph’s College, Jakhama and Patkai Christian College, Chumukedima were accredited by NAAC, Bangalore.

Higher Education has seriously taken up the national policy for Assessing, Promoting and Sustaining Quality Education. To monitor and encourage the delivery of quality Education, the Department is closely working with the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) under UGC to encourage the Colleges in Nagaland to undertake self assessment and to improve their performances.

The State Level Quality Assurance Coordination Committee (SLQACC) formed in 2005 and the Quality Assurance Cell (QAC) formed in 2004 are actively involved to create awareness in the Colleges for the necessity of NAAC Assessment for Quality Education. The College Quality Assurance Committee (CQAC) has been formed to motivate and guide the affiliated Colleges to undergo NAAC Assessment. Accordingly the CQAC could conduct awareness programmes in 13 Colleges in 6 Districts.

Fazl Ali College, Mokokchung became the first Govt. College to be accredited by NAAC in 2010 they were awarded Grade “B”

3. Grant in Aid :

The Department implements a Grant-in-aid scheme under which financial assistance is extended to Govt. recognized Private Colleges, Theological Colleges and Educational Institutions of higher learning, organizations and on rare occasions even individuals who are involved in the promotion of education are also covered under this scheme.
